

CONVENTION SERVICES

WE'RE HERE TO HELP

Thank you for choosing Tucson to be your next destination. Our Convention Services staff is as invested in the success of your meeting or event as you are, and we are here to help every step of the way.

Call on us for assistance with anything from activity and venue suggestions to promotion ideas to on-site staffing. You can find information on all of our services at our web site: www.visitTucson.org/meeting/conventionservices/ or by contacting us using the information below.

Our team, consisting of two CTAs (Certified Tourism Ambassadors), can help you:

- Connect with our suppliers & services
- Find the right transportation options for your group
- Promote your event electronically and in print
- Secure experienced and affordable convention staffing
- Plan creative activities & events

Tucson is an amazingly diverse city surrounded by more attractions and activities than anyone can experience in one trip. MTCVB Convention Services will make sure you find all of the resources you need to make your meeting or event the perfect fit for your attendees!

Please be aware that approximately one month prior to your event, you will receive an e-mail from our staff to confirm delivery of destination guides for your group to your hotel. You will be asked for a final number for your group as well as for other logistical information. Please help us facilitate this valuable service for your group by ensuring your e-mail settings will accept messages from mortega@visitTucson.org

BONDING THROUGH VOLUNTOURISM

An increasing number of our convention clients are expressing interest in building a community service project into their Tucson event. Our Volontourism opportunities are numerous! To get you started, we have a new web page devoted to helping match your group to the right local nonprofit. Visit it at www.visitTucson.org/volontourism and give me a call for more details. We are proud to introduce Ben's Bells as our featured Volontourism partner—this Tucson-specific nonprofit can accommodate groups large and small and provide a fun experience at their studio adjacent to the University of Arizona campus or at your hotel or resort. To learn more about Ben's Bells and its mission to promote kindness, please visit their web site at www.bensbells.org

BRING LOCAL ART TO YOUR EVENT

Every so often, we hear that meeting attendees find themselves too strapped for time to get out and see a destination and experience its culture. While we hope this is not the case with your group, there is a solution! If you find yourself with unsold exhibit space, or extra table room in your registration area, our local artists will be happy to step in, fill the space and sell their crafts in a "trunk show" format. This initiative helps support our Tucson artists and provides your attendees with an opportunity to view and/or purchase locally made art and craft. To see examples of what kind of work can be displayed and sold in your exhibit hall, visit www.4artiststucson.com

Please call Jane Roxbury at 520-770-2144 to schedule your trunk show!

The enclosed Destination Guide is also available online! You can find it at: www.visitTucson.org/meeting/conventionservices/
